Players whiz down the ice. There's a loud crack as a forward takes a slap shot. The puck speeds toward the goal.

Every season, hockey players have a chance to make or break records. New records are set often. But some records are so amazing, they might never be broken.

RECORD! Most Olympic Ice Hockey Medals 5

Canadian players Jayna Hefford and Hayley Wickenheiser are Olympic legends. They each have four gold medals and one silver. They have more Olympic medals than any other hockey players, men or women.

Hefford and Wickenheiser are both in the Hockey Hall of Fame. Only five other women have that honor.
