Chapter 1

Dark, Dingy, and Delightful

Boy, you're bored. You've watched every unboxing video ever made. You feel like your eyes are melting right out of your head. The couch is eating you alive! You're so bored, you're counting the dust specks on the TV screen. You need something to do. Better turn to your imagination! There's no shortage of adventures it can lead you on.

Downstairs ... If You Dare

Why not use your imagination to check out the basement? Basements tend to gather leftover junk. Family members store things there and forget them. Basements also have creepy sounds and dark corners. It's the perfect place to use your imagination. Let's get going!

Tip

Not everyone's home has a basement. If yours doesn't, try a garage. Storage rooms or closets are fun to explore too.

Chapter 2

Unboxing Treasure (Or Junk)

The basement has just what you need to make your own unboxing videos. Look at all the boxes! Some are small and dusty. Others are big and dusty. Just pick one, peel back the tape, and pull open the flaps. Imagine there's a camera filming. Give it a big smile. Or scream if you find something gross. Tell your audience what you think about your discoveries.
