On the

FIELD

It was the 2009 Super Bowl.

The Pittsburgh Steelers' opponents led by just three points. But less than a minute of the game remained.

Steelers' quarterback Ben Roethlisberger launched a pass. Wide receiver Santonio Holmes leapt into the air. He caught the ball. Touchdown! The team won its sixth Super Bowl!

Touchdown!

HISTORY

of the Steelers

The Steelers is one of the NFL's most successful teams. But it took the team time to reach the top. Art Rooney started the team in 1933. Its first seven years were rough. The team went through five head coaches. It only won 22 games.

The team was originally called the Pittsburgh Pirates.

A Record-Making Team

The team didn't win its first division title until 1972. That's when things took off for the team. With Chuck Noll as coach, the team won the 1975 Super Bowl. It went on to win the big game in 1976, 1979, and 1980. The Steelers won again in 2006 and 2009. No team has more Super Bowl victories.
