A Day in the Life

A pack of six gray wolves searches the woods. One wolf picks up the smell of deer. Time to hunt. It's a cold day, but the wolves' thick fur keeps them warm.

The wolves follow the deer scent to the edge of their home range. They stop to howl. Their howls warn other packs they are there.

Supper Time

The wolves spot three deer. One looks sick. It walks slowly and falls behind. The wolves draw near. When close, they rush at the deer. Two deer run away, but the sick one falls. Time to eat.
