A Powerful Car

Stock cars race around a track. Their engines roar as they zoom by. The final lap is coming up. Fans hope their favorite cars take the lead.

engine: a machine that changes energy into mechanical motion lap: one time around or over a course

Built to Race

Stock cars aren't like normal cars. They're built to race. They have big engines. The cars' bodies push away air. These features let them hit top speeds.
